

Online Clinic on Menopause

Friday 25th – Thursday 31st March 2011

talkhealth, in partnership with NHS Choices and the British Menopause Society, is opening an online interactive forum for women experiencing the menopause.

Our panel of leading experts specialising in menopause related issues will be in the forum to:

- answer your questions about issues surrounding the menopause;
- dispel some of the common misconceptions and myths; and
- provide valuable help and guidance.
