

Online Clinic on Prostate Disease

Friday 25th November – Thursday 1st December 2011

THE BOB CHAMPION CANCER TRUST

talkhealth, in partnership with NHS Choices and the Bob Champion Cancer Trust and Prostate Action, is opening an online interactive forum for patients and carers experiencing the difficulties associated with prostate disease.

Our panel of leading experts specialising in prostate disease will be in the forum to:

- answer your questions about issues surrounding prostate disease;
- advise you on different types of treatments and
- provide valuable help and guidance.
