

Online Clinic on Thyroid Disorders

Wednesday 25th – Tuesday 31st January 2012

talkhealth, in partnership with NHS Choices and the British Thyroid Association and Sense About Science, is opening an online interactive forum for patients and carers experiencing the difficulties associated with thyroid disorders.

Our panel of leading experts specialising in thyroid disorders will be in the forum to:

- answer your questions about issues surrounding thyroid disorders
- advise you on different types of treatments
- provide valuable help and guidance
